

As Indiana and many other states have worked hard to keep telemarketers from intruding, it is only fair that the CBA NOT be allowed to intrude. Despite that not all of these banks are in every state, they do affect people in states in which they're not located.

Do not allow the CBA to intrude on what little quiet time some have with family members or to themselves